Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 02 January 2004.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1- 50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claims 1, 11-12, 22, and 36, Applicant uses the language "etc" and "substantially in a prescribed arrangement" to describe elements of a game structure. This language is permissible when one of ordinary skill in the art can determine the implied claimed limitations. However, the open-ended nature of this language in the instant claims does not allow one of ordinary skill in the art to determine the limitations.

The term substantially is acceptable in cases, for instance, describing two objects that are placed in close proximity to each other, wherein the exact distance is not critical. In the instant case, substantially is used to describe some layout of an indeterminate structure.

The term etc. is not acceptable because the term's definition is something of an indeterminate nature.

Examiner suggests deleting the terms substantially and etc.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-22 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-23 of U.S. Patent No. 6,319,123 ("the '123 patent"). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims in the application are merely broader than the patent claims. Once an applicant has received a patent for a species or a more specific embodiment, he is not entitled to a patent for the generic or broader invention. In the instant case, Applicant is claiming a library of images depicting events, which are used to determine winning conditions in a game machine. Whereas the '123 patent is depicting a specific embodiment of football, using football images to depict football events to create a winning game condition. In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993)

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see Amendment C, filed 01/02/04, with respect to claims 1-50 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 102 and 103 rejections of claims 1-50 has been withdrawn.

Art Unit: 3713

Applicant's arguments regarding the 112 rejections were fully considered, but are not persuasive. Applicant has not provided substantive evidence to convince Examiner that the terms in question are sufficiently clear and definite.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
